

Oakland Avenue Presbyterian Church
Connecting with God's Call...Portraits of our Ministry
A 2011 Stewardship Communication Project

“Portraits” Collection Form
Deadline Date – June 30th

Here is how you can help:

1. Take and/or submit photographs of recent Church Activities in which you have had some involvement – Activities, Missions, Ministry efforts and projects. Email those digital photographs to PORTRAITS@OAPC.NET or submit to the Church Office.
2. Include with the photograph a BRIEF description of the ministry/activity and its effect of you or other people involved in it – if possible have these write-ups included in your email to PORTRAITS@OAPC.NET or mail or deliver to the Church Office.

In the write-up you could describe the effect your participation in this ministry had on you or your experience of faith or church or you could ask someone else who participated in or benefitted from the ministry/activity to talk about its effect on them. (These write-ups can be brief or longer to fit the circumstances.)

Things to include would include:

- How it made them think/feel differently about their faith...
- How it made them think/feel differently about their service to others in the church or community...

Please feel free to include comments from one or more participants.

Please indicate the following:

1. Name of submitter - _____
2. Submitter's Telephone number: _____
3. Submitter's email address: _____
4. Name of ministry/activity - _____
5. Date & place - _____
6. What happened - _____
7. What it meant to them - _____

Thank you for helping us to exhibit our church's ministries/activities and what they mean to our Members and to the broader Faith Community - “Connecting with God's Call...Portraits of Our Ministry.”

These materials, photographs and descriptions will be used in a variety of methods of communication – in printed materials, on the website, on bulletin boards and in Power Point Presentations. (Oakland Ave. Presbyterian Church)
