Chad Echols

Chad has been a member of OAPC for four years. He and his wife, Anna, have an eight-month-old son, Guy. Chad is very active in the community, currently serving as chair of the Charlotte Avenue Branch of the YMCA. He is a member of the York County Clemson Club and the York County Board of Disabilities and Special Needs, and previously served as Board President for Interfaith Hospitality Network. Chad served briefly on the OAPC Communication Committee, and is a member of the Young Adult Sunday School class. Chad continues to serve OAPC as Youth Advisor for the Senior Highs.

Catherine Faircloth

Catherine Faircloth is 29 years old and a lifetime member of OAPC. Her family has attended OAPC for three generations, extending to the fourth generation with her daughter, Rose. She is married to Freddy Faircloth who is another native of Rock Hill. She is also the third generation in her family married at OAPC. Through the years, Catherine participated in the children's choir, youth groups, mission projects and mission trips; and while in high school, she served as an OAPC liaison for the Billy Graham convention. Shortly after college, she served two years as a High School Girl's Circle advisor, and previously served on the Preschool Ministry Team and the Property Committee. Currently, she is a Sunday School teacher for the Young Adult class and a member of the Planning and Development Committee.

William (Red) Ferguson

Red has been a member of OAPC for thirty years. He and his wife, Hannalie, have three married daughters who grew up in our congregation. Red and Hannalie now enjoy their two grandchildren. Red also has enjoyed coaching youth basketball at OAPC, something he has done for the past five years. He is an active volunteer with Hannalie at the Dorothy Day Soup Kitchen and has served OAPC as Head of our Habitat for Humanity building projects in 2005 and 2007.

Donna Hanna

Donna Trent Hanna and her husband, James M. Hanna joined OAPC in August of 2005 after moving to Rock Hill from Phoenix, AZ where she was a college instructor. She is a member of the Julian Lake Sunday School Class and is a substitute teacher in that class. Donna is also a member of the Welcoming Committee, the Congregational Care Committee, and the Communications and Technology Committee. She has directed one of the Maundy Thursday Services and is a member of the Betty Rader Circle.
